

	STUMP 1	STUMP 2	STUMP 3	STUMP 4
Focus	Long 'o' - oa	Long 'o' - oa and ow	Long 'o' - oa and ow	Long 'o' - oa and ow
Week 2	Coat float load toad	boat road float boast Hoax approach slowly	narrow grown thrown floatation boastful Hoax encroach approaching	narrowly disowned approachable boastfulness encroached loathsome Shallowness
Focus	Long 'u' - u-e	Long 'u' - u-e	Long 'u' - u-e	Long 'u' - u-e
Week 3	tune June Prune cute	lute flute mute refuse argue amuse confuse argue intrude assume flute costume	rebuke endure prosecute capsule attitude consume resume execute	Rebuke solitude Prosecutor quietude Consumer persecute deluge altitude
Focus	Long vowel phonemes ai, ay	To spell irregular tense changes	Spelling patterns in pluralisation	Words spelt 'ei', 'eigh' or 'ey'
Week 4	day lay May pay aid	main fail aim Teach struck Taught strike Fight thought fought think	Potatoes knives Tomatoes wolves Formulae scarves antennae themselves	eighth disobeying Eighteen neighbourliness Eightieth outweighs weightlessness neighbourhood
Focus	Vowel phonemes ee, ea	To spell regular verb endings	Spelling words containing letter string 'ough'	The suffix ' ous '
Week 5	bee dee meet Week Sea Tea pea leaf	marries married marrying carries carried carrying relied relying	rougher toughness ploughing doughnuts thorough throughout thoroughly coughed	mountainous poisonous tremendous enormous continuous courageous outrageous hideous
Focus	Long vowel phonemes -igh	Spelling two-syllable words with double consonants	Spelling words ending in ' tial ' and ' cial '	Endings spelt ' clous ' or ' tious '
Week 6	sigh sight high light night might right tight	swimming getting kettle bubble written messed stopped grabbed	potential essential commercial beneficial confidential torrential financial influential	malicious atrocious unsuspicious ferocious unconscious scrumptious repetitious conscientious
Focus	Long vowel phonemes ow, oa	Words with endings like ' aure ' or ' ture '	Words using the prefixes ' trans ' and ' tele '	Endings which sound like tion, sion, ssion, cian
Week 7	bow low snow blow coat boat gloat moan	exposure pleasure enclosure leisure furniture departure signature manufacture	telephone telephoned telepathy television telegraph translation transparent transformation	conversation contribution competition consideration administration distribution association organisation
Focus	j sound spelt like ge and dge	Revision of the suffix ' less '	Spelling of words using the prefixes ' bi ', ' tri ' and ' ex '	Endings which sound like tion ssion sion and cian
Week 8	charge charges change changes range Strange huge edge	doubtless meaningless countless breathless powerless speechless effortless thoughtless	bisect bilingual biannual circling circular circulation circumference circumstance	persuasion comprehension supervision possession progression technician mathematician paediatrician
Focus	Adding ing	Revision of the suffix ' ness '	To use adverbs	Endings which sound like cial and tial
Week 9	Ask Asking See Seeing Help Helping Say saying	awareness childishness foolishness naughtiness loveliness carelessness worthlessness effectiveness	eventually personally enthusiastically accidentally deliberately unhappily fortunately worriedly	artificial superficial beneficial sacrificial impartial confidential substantial Inconsequential
Focus	Adding ing	Revision of the suffixes ' able ' and ' ment '	To use adverbs	Words ending in ant, ance and ancy
Week 10	trying crying flying drying doing going seeing saying	government employment management environment replacement equipment tournament parliament	innocently violently thoughtfully unexpectedly obediently courageously mysteriously powerfully	tolerance accountancy occupancy redundancy disturbance inheritance surveillance disappearance

Term 2